

Fr Paul Norwood

Fr Paul Norwood was ordained as a non-stipendiary priest on the 4th October 2009, and served as an assistant priest at ALL Saint South Lynn. After which he started his stipendiary ministry at Holy Trinity Hempton, Norfolk before coming Vicar of St Martin's Church, Bedford. Before his ordination to the priesthood and during his OLM ministry Paul worked as a Lift engineer for thirty years. His greatest whip with Bishop Norman over these years was when the Bishop ask, how is Work? Paul would always reply - 'O you know up and down'.

Paul is excited to be part of the pilgrim group, to minister to the three individual churches helping them grow into one team. Paul is also excited to help grow these churches within the communities they serve, to show these communities God's loving care, making our churches open and accessible to all who wish to explore their faith.

Paul comes to Lincolnshire with his wife Carol of 28 years, who loves nothing more than to bake a cake, organise an event or a party. They have three adult daughters – Daisy, Victoria, Hannah and her dog Luna. All who live in various parts of the country. They also bring with them a small black and white Cat called Pat.

Paul has various hobbies – Making stained glass windows, woodworking, playing his soprano saxophone (badly), home brewing, walking, cycling reading, he enjoys being creative. He enjoys a good party has a wonderful sense of humour, he also enjoys science fiction films and books and collects religious items.
